THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 9, 1865.

The Affairs of Rebeldom.

The anaconda that has been laughed at as a fable, due to the military invention of General Scott, may have served to amuse the minds of the Southern people in times past, when, with something of success, they strove against the national power; but they must commence to have some faith in the simile, when they find themselves hemmed in with armies, and surrounded by the levelled bayonets of not less than three hundred thousand men, whose lines are drawing closer around the last ditch they seem to have located for themselves somewhere in North Carolina or Virginia. Our dispatches to-day show that the new policy adopted by the rebels for the coming campaign, includes a much smaller sphere of operations than they have occupied in former years. They abandon all the trans-Mississippi region, Louisiana and part of Mississippi, and endeavor alone to defend the line of the railroad stretching northward from Mobile, and with the whole Atlantic and Gulf coast, with the exception of that city, wrenched from their grasp, they are making a virtue of necessity and are concentrating their armies in the vicinity of North Carolina and Southern Virginia.

South Carolina, the first born of secession, is apparently abandoned to its fate. Already its capital smokes in ruins, accidentally in a manner, but not the less in ruins. Her seaports, Charleston, Beaufort and Georgetown, are no longer open to Confederate cruisers or to blockade-running crafts, and already the terrified citizens of the Palmetto City return to claim life and protection of the National flag. Desolation has traversed that State, as it lately did the fields of Georgia, and they who dared attempt secession first, have at last come to reap its bitter fruits at home. The firmness that is left them is derived from despair, and desperation seldom works out salvation for an evil and sinking cause.

Grant watches from the lines fronting Richmond and Petersburg waiting for the moment to strike his blow. Sheridan from the northwest, approaches in force strong enough to grapple single handed with the armies under Lee, having already met, and vanquished once more, his old and familiar opponent of the Shenandoah. But while Grant watches and waits; while Sheridan thunders from the northwest in near vicinity to the rebel capital, still another enemy flushed with victories that crowned his efforts as he claimed them for successive months, traversing almost a thousand miles of rebel soil, Sherman comes with doubtless an hundred thousand veterans trained to success, and as he draws near the scene and threatens Richmond, Virginia and North Carolina from the only way of escape, it seems as if the end was drawing near. All are anxiously watching his approach, but we have no fear for him.

There will most certainly be a struggle upon the soil of Virginia before it is abandoned. Hood, Johnson and Beauregard are watching for some opportunity to strike a blow at Sherman. All the distinguished Generals of either side seem leading their forces to one focus, and probably the coming struggle may be the severest, as it may also be the most decisive, of the war. Seldom has the world seen armies so trained or Generals so distinguished; never has history recorded war carried on upon such a scale of magnitude and perfection of its destructive powers, and never has the world had more at stake than now. On the one side there is a settled, hopeless despair, for a thousand deserters a week tell us that the rebel soldiers have no hope of accomplishing success. That they will fight desperately, there is no doubt, and hundreds of battle fields attest how recklessly they throw their lives away upon their hopeless cause.

On the other side we see men that have no superiors as soldiers, led by Generals that have been more than proved, and have never known defeat. Numbers alone suffice to make the national arms irresistible. The plans of the campaign, so far have lacked no element of success. All that Sherman meets is victory, won as much by the force of skill and power of strategy as by numerical superiority. Not only America, but the world, looks on, breathlessly watching the issue of this, perhaps, the last great battle of the rebellion.

Sherman and Grant.—A gentleman who has visited Grant says that he heard that General enthusiastically declare that Sherman was the best of living Generals to operate in the field and carry out a campaign. The two most distinguished of our military leaders have great confidence in each other, and the warmest personal regard devoid of all jealous feeling. Sherman in turn declares us earnestly, that his chief has no equal, and can plan war more perfectly than any man living. There is something very satisfactory in this perfect harmony, and we every day see its fruits in victories. The whole campaign, from Atlanta until the time when Sherman shall reach Richmond to finish up the programme, was planned last fall by the two Generals, when Grant was in command at Chattanooga, and so far has been carried out without failure. Success to the part that remains undone.

Route to Idaho City.—The Red Bluff Independent says the cost of travel from San Francisco to Idaho City, as it learns from a traveler, is $130; so we give the highest rates: ocean travel, $45; Portland to Umatilla, $18; stage to Idaho City, $60—making exactly $123, and a trifle more for three days' subsistence on the road. Scarce half, neighbor Independent, and these prices were last year's and are liable to be reduced. In the traveling season, a person can leave San Francisco and reach Idaho City in from eight to ten days. The Independent is right in saying that the best route will take the travel; so we can both live in hopes, especially on this end of the road, as we have "indications" of all the travel we can attend to.

A City Charter Vetoed.—Gov. Blaisdell, of Nevada, vetoed the city charter of Virginia City, passed by the Legislature of Nevada. By this a set of officers were appointed to take care of the city for the next two years. The citizens thought it an imposition, and the Governor seems to have had the same view of it. The disfranchisement of a city of so many thousands of inhabitants was rather a cool thing to attempt, but Nevada is decidedly a fast State.

An Iron Letter.—The London Times acknowledges the receipt of a letter from Sligo Iron Works, Pittsburg, written upon a sheet of iron not weighing more than double the same size of ordinary letter paper. It was the one hundredth part of an inch in thickness, being the thinnest iron ever rolled. We are not told how it was written upon, or if the sheet was folded in letter form.

Snow at Astoria.—On Thursday and Friday of last week, the Marine Gazette says, thirteen inches of snow fell at that place, but by Sunday evening was all gone. At the same time, only an inch or two fell on Clatsop plains near by.

Additional Eastern news will be found on our fourth page.

DATES TO MARCH 8.

Rebel Plans for the next Campaign.

New York, March [illegible].—The Centre, Miss., [illegible] states positively that all west of the Mississippi is to be given up by the rebel leaders. No effort is to be made [illegible] any of the country between the [illegible] river. The line of the [illegible] the Mobile and Ohio Railroad [illegible] Jackson will [illegible] the rebels will make a stand [illegible] Federal forces [illegible] with the Central [illegible] Mobile and Ohio Railroad [illegible] of their great lines of communication [illegible] the [illegible] at the same time it [illegible] and Montgomery. [illegible] is marching [illegible] leaving Dick Taylor in command of the [illegible]. A small part [illegible] Forrest, [illegible] and cavalry force [illegible] to about 20,000. Forrest, upon his assumption of the command of the department of East Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama, has been making radical changes in his [illegible] a considerable portion of his irregular cavalry. [illegible] designs [illegible] West Mississippi and attempting to hold only the country between the Mobile and Ohio Railroad and the eastern boundary of Alabama.

Features of the New Tax Bill.

Washington, March [illegible].—The following are some of the features of the new tax bill, as passed by both Houses of Congress: On all incomes exceeding six hundred dollars, a tax of five per cent. On all over [illegible] thousand, a tax of [illegible] per cent. The tax on cigars is fixed at [illegible] dollars per thousand, without regard to price or quality, instead of so much per pound and [illegible] manufactured [illegible]. A tax of forty cents per pound on smoking tobacco and tobacco manufactured from stems, etc., [illegible] cents per pound after July, 1865. There is to be levied a tax of 10 per cent. on all the State bank circulation from the 1st of next May. The savings' banks are one half of one per cent. on their deposits. On petroleum the tax is finally fixed at one dollar per barrel of forty gallons. No drawback is allowed whatever when the petroleum is exported. In the 94th section of the old revenue law, an increased tax of 20 per cent. is levied on every article of the schedule named in it.

This includes all kinds of manufactures, and the old law, with this 20 per cent. added, will be the new standard of taxation. The stamp tax is so amended as to make every written instrument void without its proper stamp. The toll on [illegible] to be incorporated in the new law, being lost by a wide tax of half of one per cent. on sales. The tax on cotton was stricken out, the Senate refusing to concur, unless drawbacks were given on manufactured articles. Both houses agreed to the appointment of Commissioners to [illegible] the revenue to examine into the subject of taxation.

Particulars of the Burning of Columbia, S. C., and Sherman's March.

New York, March 7.—The steamer Neversink from Hilton Head on the 4th, has arrived.

The Charleston Courier of the 2d, says: An officer of Sherman's army was in Charleston taking the initiatory steps for raising a regiment of white troops.

A large number of the families who had removed beyond the city limits had returned.

The Savannah Republican of the 27th ult., has a statement, derived from a citizen of Columbia, in regard to that city. It appears that rebel troops of large number, left there on the 17th, in the direction of Charlotte. [illegible] Magrath left on the 15th for the upper section of the State, and Beauregard left on the same day for Charlotte. Major Goodwin went the same day, and surrendered the city to Sherman.

Public stores were thrown open and everybody helped themselves. There were no stores burned. Sherman's army entered Columbia in the afternoon. They soon commenced destroying public property. The arsenals were blown up, and buildings in the suburbs, containing public stores, were fired. Late in the afternoon a pile of cotton in the street took fire from the sparks, and the flame soon spread to some wooden buildings which were near, and a strong wind drove the flames down both sides of the street. The scene became terrible. Loud explosions continually filled the air, and the ground was shaken as by an earthquake. Nothing of any account was saved.

The distance burned over on Main street was about a mile and a half. The fire also extended from five to ten blocks east of Main street, destroying everything before it. The entire business portion of the city is in ruins. Both the hotels, Guardian and Carolinian, newspaper offices, a number of churches, the Catholic Seminary, and several other public buildings. All the depots and public buildings at Charlotte Junction were burned, and all the cars, engines and railroad stock, which were left by the rebels, are destroyed. Only three churches are left standing, the Catholic, Episcopal and Presbyterian. The Female College was uninjured, and is now occupied by houseless women and children. The old State House was burned, but the new State House remained untouched, as it contained a statue of Gen. Washington. Gen. Preston's house was saved and given to the occupants of the Catholic Seminary, whose property was accidentally destroyed. The railway about Columbia was all torn up, and all the bridges leading to the place were destroyed. All the foundries and machine shops were burned. The country about the place is stripped of all eatables, and all the horses and carriages were taken.

The citizens are said to be in a very destitute condition. Sherman's headquarters were at the city at the residence of Maj. Duncan. An estimate of his infantry and artillery numbered 70,000. There is no cavalry with him. The rear guard passed through on Tuesday afternoon. The troops were in the best condition, well clothed and well shod, and marched as if they had just started on the expedition, instead of being out for weeks. Fort Motte, St. Mathew, and the Union Court House has been destroyed. Some of Sherman's officers stated his destination was Raleigh and Salisbury. [illegible] good spirits and confident of success. [illegible] took the road to Camden and Florence and another to Winsboro. Sherman with [illegible] moved in the direction of Charlotte.

New York, March 6.—The Times' Washington special dispatch says evidence accumulates that Sherman has moved by the flank of Johnston's forces and placed himself between that body of rebels and Wilmington. Advices from Schofield's army, who arrived here to-day from Wilmington, bring information that refugees and deserters who are daily coming within our lines, report Sherman as having moved from Waynesboro, S. C., in the direction of Fayetteville, N. C., entering [illegible] and compelling them to evacuate it, upon which it was occupied by our cavalry, who were engaged in destroying the railroad.

The practicability of a junction between Sherman and Schofield is thus assured beyond doubt, though up to March 1st, it had not been actually effected.

The Tribune's Wilmington correspondent, writing under date of the 28th, says: Sherman's cavalry was reported at Florence, S. C., a few days since. It is rumored in town this morning that the steamer [illegible] with a large body of troops have crossed the northwest branch of Cape Fear river six miles from this place. If so, the Chickamauga, which is up the river, will come to grief between two fires. She is hemmed in between the forces of Sherman and Schofield, and will be certainly captured.

The Chickamauga has been reported destroyed by the rebels, which goes to confirm the report of the whereabouts of Sherman's main body.

Appeal to Oregon to Raise a Regiment of Cavalry.

Headquarters, District of Oregon,
Fort Vancouver, W. T., March [illegible].

To the People of Oregon:

I write this to make an earnest appeal to the State, to raise the Regiment of Cavalry which the War Department has called for, as announced in the proclamation of the Governor dated the 12th January.

It has been very gratifying to see the prompt manner in which some sections of the State have raised companies for the Regiment of Infantry, which contains material sure to perform [illegible] any emergency.

But I hope that equal success will attend the raising of the Cavalry. Pray let Northern Oregon emulate the prompt and patriotic manner in which Southern Oregon raised some companies in the winter of 1861 and '62.

Certainly every reflecting citizen must be aware that this force is needed for the defense of the frontier. We have never yet had Cavalry enough. I have, since I have been in command, constantly wished to send some Cavalry to Fort Colville, and have never been able to spare them. The Indians in that quarter will be sure to be brought more and more into collision with the whites. This [illegible] has never been extinguished and on account of the progress of our population in that direction, it becomes every day a matter of more importance to have a respectable force in that vicinity.

A recent letter from me to the Surveyor General of Oregon, published in the papers, exhibited the uses to which troops would probably be put next season in Eastern Oregon, and every well wisher to the State must desire that those surveys and explorations shall be successfully carried out. They will aid in developing your mineral wealth. A dispatch from Fort Boise states that as early as the 30th January, a scout was sent from that post to the waters of the Bruneau, 30 miles S. E. of Boise City, and eight Indians were killed in the fight. Expeditions to the mining camps on the head-waters of the Owyhee, and West of Jordan creek, to the Snow Mountains and Goose Lake country, will surely be needed. There is not now a cavalry soldier at Fort Boise.

Colonel English has just received authority to pay the advance bounty of one-third to each new company, as fast as raised. The recruits for old companies get it at once. One hundred dollars is the advance bounty to a volunteer who enlists for three years.

It is proper for me to add that there have been traitors in our midst, ready to take advantage of any occasion to plot disturbances in our peaceful community. The existence of a cavalry force will never be regretted if such intestine difficulty should arise, which may kind Heaven avert. Audacity is the watchword of such plotters, and vigilance is the only rule of safety. Trust that the waning fortunes of the rebellion at the East are discouraging to the malcontents, who wish here a chance at an imbroglio. But we must remember that even if peace occurs to-morrow, the very restoration of peace may be followed by threatening foreign complications, growing out of the occupation of Mexico.

But it is enough for us that the Government of the United States has made this call. Without any reference to the uses to which the force will be put, it is the dictate of duty and patriotism to respond to it. The gallantry and public spirit of Oregonians have often been shown on other occasions. I cannot believe they will be wanting now. Let the good citizens of each county arouse themselves and do what they can for the cause.

It was my wish and expectation that the first call on the 20th of October last, should have been made for the whole force needed. But it was my duty of course to defer the action of those in command. Gov. Gibbs' message to the Legislature, of the 22d of October, said that the proportion of Oregon would be two regiments. General McDowell had thought proper to call out but one at that date.

Postscript.—Since writing the above, I have received a notification that orders will soon be sent for me to proceed to Washington. It has been my fortune to watch for twelve years the interesting progress which Oregon has made in population, settlement and resources. It shall always be my pride that I have had some opportunity to aid in their development. The development of the new Territories and States, I have always recognized as eminently the duty and policy of the government, by the defense of the frontiers, by the opening of roads and the protection of those who are exploring unknown regions. Since I have been in command, defences have been commenced for the mouth of the Columbia, and I have not failed to act on the precept that it is our duty "[illegible]."

In bidding adieu with much sensibility to my friends in your State and the adjoining Territories, I will repeat the parting wish that the attachment of this region to our glorious Union shall continue and increase, and the sentiment of Washington be fully realized, that "our National Union is the palladium of our political safety and prosperity."

STATE OF OREGON,

The undersigned, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Church, of Salem, Oregon, states as follows: On the second day of the late State Fair held at this place, I, together with Mrs. Cochran and Mrs. Gray, were appointed by the Managers of the Fair the regular Committee to examine and award premiums on the articles in Needlework, Class 3, of the Fair. In which the Sewing Machines were entered, and we entered upon our duties as such Committee.

Among other things in the class we examined the Grover & Baker and the Florence Sewing Machines, their [illegible] and WE UNANIMOUSLY AWARDED THE FIRST PREMIUM TO THE FLORENCE MACHINE.

AFTER OUR AWARD ON THE SEWING MACHINES BECAME KNOWN ON THE LAST DAY OF THE FAIR, ANOTHER AND SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF FIVE WAS APPOINTED BY SOMEBODY TO EXAMINE THE SEWING MACHINES, WHICH APPOINTMENT WE WERE NOT ADVISED OF, AND WE MADE READY TO REPORT OUR AWARDS IN WRITING, AND WE COMPLIED [illegible].

By A. F. WHITTE, Deputy Clerk.

PORTLAND, January 26, 1865.

I certify that I am Corresponding Secretary of the Oregon State Agricultural Society; that the original Report of Committee on Sewing Machines at the Fair of 1864, has never been out of my possession; that [illegible] minutes since I received it from the Board of Managers, and that J. W. J. Pears, Oregon Agent for G. & B. Machines, told me in Portland he had written to E. May of Salem for a copy of it, and that, [illegible] after the publication by the Agent in San Francisco, that he had it in his possession; further that I am in no way interested in the result of the decision of the Committee, or the final result of the investigation, except as an officer of the Society.

E. M. WAITE,
Corresponding Secretary O. S. A. Society.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 26th of January, 1865.

LEVI ANDERSON, J. P.,
Multnomah county, Oregon.

The Grover & Baker Agent has made use of the name of J. L. THORNTON to show that Mrs. Howe's statement was incorrect and goes on in the most shameful manner. We do not know who this J. L. THORNTON is! We are not willing to believe, however, J. QUINN THORNTON is the man, for he would blush to swear to such contemptible matter. J. L. Thornton's affidavit does not show, however, that Mrs. Howe was not right in her statement of the facts "that after a long consultation, it was finally decided and agreed by the Committee to award the First Premium to the FLORENCE Machine as the best Machine for doing all grades of work; and a Premium to the Grover & Baker Machine for Embroidery," but says her report was, that "it was finally decided and agreed by the ladies present, to award the first premium to the Florence Machine, for embroidery, etc." which she never did say, but that they awarded the First Premium to the Florence Machine as the best Machine for doing all grades of work, and a Premium to the Grover & Baker Machine for Embroidery.

We trust it will not be supposed from our efforts to prove the justice of our claim to the Oregon premium that we esteem the premium there or elsewhere, over such a competitor, of any value; to be beaten, however, by a chain-stitch machine, which, when exhibited in honorable competition with ANY lock-stitch machine, as shown by the records of previous Fairs, has been more frequently classed as second or third rate than otherwise, would be a disgrace indeed.

The instances are numerous where the Agent of that machine has attempted unfair advantages to obtain premiums which he knew could be taken in no other manner—for proof, refer to any one of the San Francisco Sewing Machine Agents.

The developments in the Salem matter show to what perfection long practice and experience in such transactions have brought him. It is certainly amusing to follow the details in this deep-laid, premeditated and wicked plan.

The Agent of the Grover & Baker Machine selects a distant point for the field of his operations, hoping by distance to cover the means used to accomplish the hand-about end in view; he selects a time also when we were engaged exhibiting the Florence at two other Fairs, which would prevent our giving it much attention at a third Fair. With the President of the Fair apparently pledged to award him the premium, if a Committee could not be selected who would do so; in fact, with every arrangement made beforehand that would seem to make a failure impossible, he finally ventured to place his Machine in competition with the FLORENCE. The result was such as all who know the two would anticipate—more than disastrous defeat to the unscrupulous champion of the chain-stitch machine.

The facts in relation to the transaction at Salem now being exposed, are known to too many for the Agent of the Grover & Baker machine to make a successful denial of them. We have hardly begun to "take testimony." The investigations now commenced will be carried forward until every particular in relation to the fraud is exposed, unless the Agent of the G. & B. machine by himself or otherwise, acknowledges the truth in the premises.

Duty to the Florence will compel us to do this, and while we written full and most thorough investigation we hope you will make a statement for or against us that they cannot fully substantiate if called upon to do so. We have no need to intimidate, but simply that the plain truth, and only that may be given.

We would suggest to the Agent of the G. & B. machine that as he is rated skilled, even if we had the inclination, the Sandusky and personal abusive style of writing, [illegible] so much his forte, that he should confine it [illegible] to obscure the real [illegible] facts in the case.

The Florence is a subject and a reliable machine, [illegible] and operated, doing the heaviest [illegible] work, and requiring scarcely a change [illegible].

[illegible] one thousand have been sold on this coast [illegible].

[illegible] a particle of [illegible] the Florence, or who wish to test their good [illegible] we will give you [illegible].

The Whitman Tomahawk.—In reply to an official communication asking for more full information concerning the Tomahawk that was used by the Cayuse Indians as an instrument in the massacre of the Whitman family, and others, in 1847, the literary Agent at Umatilla writes that the real hatchet is still in the possession of Indians there. The Indians upon the reservation, many of whom are highly intelligent, observing by the newspapers that a certain one had been presented to the Ladies' Sanitary Fair at Salem, and subsequently deposited with the archives of the State, purporting to be the veritable instrument, very naturally expressed astonishment, not unmixed with regret, that Col. "Wm." Logan, Agent at Warm Springs reservation, had suffered himself to be made the instrument of that presentation without first having conclusive evidence of the authenticity of the hatchet. Mr. Barnhart briefly states the facts concerning the history and present whereabouts of the real hatchet as follows:—"From reliable and undoubted evidence, received from Indians who were present on that lamentable and ever memorable occasion, I learn that the hatchet with which the barbarous and sanguinary deed was committed was obtained from the Gros Ventres, a tribe living somewhat east of the Rocky Mountains—by Tile-ka-i, a Cayuse Indian Chief, about the year 1835. This story is corroborated by the well known fact that formerly numbers of the Cayuse Indians were accustomed annually to go beyond the Rocky Mountains to hunt Buffalo; and also, the hatchet is of the pattern used in trade with the Indians of that region by the American Fur Company. As I write (December 25th, 1864) the identical hatchet is before me, and as there is only one form, size, pattern or make, of this warlike instrument, I can readily perceive why Agent Logan, or indeed any other person, might be easily deceived and imposed upon. This tomahawk, or hatchet, was presented to Five Crows—a former well known chief of the Cayuse nation—about the time that Archibald McKinlay, Esq., of the Hudson Bay Company, assumed charge of the Fort Walla Walla—now the flourishing city of Walla Walla—which circumstance Mr. McKinlay, if he is living, will doubtless recollect, as the presentation, I am informed, was made in his presence." History should be correct upon matters of this character, which is the only apology we have to offer for introducing the subject at the present time.

The California Minstrels.—The above minstrel troupe have played to crowded audiences at the Eureka Theatre, in this city, during the week, and have proved themselves to be possessed of fine abilities as performers, and entitled to the most cordial patronage. They have never failed to delight the lovers of the genuine ethiopian style of acting. They will perform at Vancouver and at Oregon City previous to their departure for Idaho, and without discriminating we can recommend the entire company to our neighbors as fully capable of giving them the worth of a dollar in wit and music.

Capture of a Porker.—A somewhat exciting chase yesterday on Front street attracted great attention. A hog drover had missed one of the fattest porkers from his drove, and detailed an assistant to bring up the rear. At the Liberty Brewery his swineship was discovered, rooting rigorously at the episcitude of the street, when he was pounced upon by the drover, and carrying his captor astride, was finally headed under a dray and secured by ropes. A bystander remarked that the drover ran very near chances of being "hogged," in the position he had attained under the dray, and many others thought it was a "hoggish" transaction all around.

The Glass Blowers.—We learn from Mr. E. Kelly, manager of the popular levees given in this city by the Glass Blowers a few months since, that they have lately returned from a very successful trip to parts of the Willamette Valley, and as soon as the weather permits propose an extended tour in the mountain districts.

Net Receipts.—We were informed yesterday that the net receipts at the ladies' festival, for the benefit of the soldiers, on Saturday and Monday last, was $152 75 in coin and $28 in currency. The ladies placed upon the table of the Printer's a collation which served as a very excellent midnight lunch on the evening after the fair, for which we neglected to make proper acknowledgment. We do so now—they will please accept our thanks.

Runaway.—A team of four horses, attached to a large freight wagon, became frightened at the whistle of the Stark street ferry boat last evening, and ran away. One of the horses was thrown, when opposite Richardson's Auction Store and after being dragged considerable distance the team was stopped, without farther damage than the infliction of severe injuries to the less fortunate animal.

Photographic Gallery.—Mr. Hendee is doing excellent work in the way of photographs, and has probably as perfect conveniences for the business as can be found in the State. His rooms are in the third story of Parish's block, entrance on Washington street, and as they were arranged and fitted up expressly for his use, he has no excuse for not taking the best kind of pictures. Specimens that have come under our observation are equal to any known to us.

Recorder's Court.—In Recorder's Court yesterday Hugh McLaughlin, drunk and disorderly, was committed to jail for the term of five days, upon failure to pungle the sum of $25 in greenbacks. He is an old offender, a citizen of Oregon City, came to Portland for the purchase of boot materials, and obtained greater boot than he contracted for. The hurdy gurdy case, and the case of gambling Celestials were continued.

County Affairs.—County Court, Judge Marquam presiding, has been in session the present week, but as far nothing of general interest has transpired. The Commissioners of the Court are to meet to-day, at which time proposals for the erection of the new Court House will be examined.

Treasure.—Wells, Fargo & Co. yesterday shipped $60,008 by the steamship for San Francisco, which was the only amount we could learn of. The steamer from the Cascades last evening brought $35,000, in bullion and dust to the same Company.

The Price of Horses.—A correspondent writing from Umatilla to the Mountaineer, says that horses, which are so poor that they cannot possibly carry a person through to the mines, are selling at the rate of from $75 to $100 each. Seats in the stages are engaged a long time ahead, and it is almost impossible for a person to get through.

The Upper River.—The steamer from the Cascades last evening reports that the Spray had arrived at Celilo on Tuesday, after a long delay caused by being wind-bound and ice-bound. The river remains at about the same stage as reported on Saturday; very low, but the Spray would return yesterday, notwithstanding she will have to encounter the greatest difficulty to reach Umatilla.

The Steamer Pacific.—We are informed by telegraph that the steamer Pacific left San Francisco yesterday for this port with a very large number of passengers, coming direct. She will be likely to arrive on Saturday, and will return direct to San Francisco.

Grinding Coffee by Steam.—Mr. Jones of the coffee and spice works, corner of [illegible] and Second streets in this city, has lately put up a steam engine in connection with his establishment, to furnish capacity for the working of the mills.

The Drama.—The lovers of the drama will be pleased to learn that after a short intermission the Theatre will be again opened this evening, and a very attractive bill performed.

We lately received several communications from Vancouver relating to soldiers' interest and defending themselves, as they think, from injustice. We have done, and intend to do, all we can for the interests of the volunteers, and have a high opinion of the young men who have joined the service from Oregon, but we have not room for these numerous communications.

Iron-clads.—The second largest Monitor yet built has been launched at Pittsburg, and another, smaller vessel of the same class is on the stocks, intended for harbor defense, and named the Umpqua. We would suggest Multnomah as an appropriate name for some vessel of war.

Personal.—We understand from Mr. S. Knight, at present connected with the Statesman, that he soon intends to cut adrift from the editorial fraternity and will adopt as his permanent profession the ministry in connection with the Congregational [illegible]. Mr. Knight is a young man of some considerable attainments, whose talents qualify him to be useful in the world, and we hope [illegible] much [illegible] upon.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.—The Weak, the Consumptive, Rheumatic, Costive, Bilious and Delicate, after some days' use, will find renewed strength and life pervade every organ of their frame.

Every dose makes the blood purer. The nerves commence in the arteries and terminate in the veins. These pills, as a first effect, act upon the arterial blood, increasing the circulation, by which impurities are pressed to the veins, and they throw off such collections into the bowels, which organs, by the energy derived from Brandreth's Pills, expel them from the system. When first used, the Pills may occasion griping, and even make the patient feel worse. This is an excellent sign, and shows the disease will soon be cured. No great good is often achieved without some trouble in its attainment, and this rule applies to the recovery of health.

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.

NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP
HAS CURED THOUSANDS!
And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences,

As this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption."—[Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAN COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supercede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefitted by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM!

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

He Had a Cold!

Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not

NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 5.

From the South-West.

A New Orleans correspondent has information from Mobile to 26th February, at which time the rebels were receiving reinforcements and strengthening the defenses. Beauregard was there on the 24th inspecting the works. He made a speech expressing great confidence that the place can be held. The force in Mobile is said to be much larger than has been generally supposed.

Gen. Granger was at Pensacola, Fla., on the 11th, inspecting the Union troops.

Gen. A. J. Smith's 16th Army Corps was encamped just outside of New Orleans.

The Herald's special dispatch says: Apprehensions are expressed in some quarters that there is a deep design in the great influx of deserters from the rebel armies in the loyal States. It is surmised that large numbers of these deserters are transferred to the heart of the loyal portion of the country to organize a raid on an extensive scale.

Forest Boasts.

CAIRO, March 5.—The Jackson (Miss.) papers of the 25th contain an address from the rebel general Forrest to his troops, respecting the results of his operations during the past year. He says they have fought fifty battles, killed and captured 16,000 of the enemy, captured 2,000 horses and mules, sixty-seven pieces of artillery, four gunboats, four transports, 20 barges, 300 wagons, 50 ambulances, 10,000 stands of arms, and 40 block-houses; and destroyed 36 railroad bridges, 200 miles of railroad, six locomotives, 100 cars and $15,000,000 of property. In accomplishing this he admits that they were occasionally sustained by other troops, but says their regular number exceeded 5,000, 2,000 of whom had been killed and wounded, and 2,000 taken prisoners. He tells them to prepare for renewed action, and warns them against being allured by the syren's song of peace, for there can be no peace save upon their separate independent nationality.

Dabney is in command of all the rebel military forces in Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi.

A great scarcity of breadstuffs is said to exist in Northern Mississippi.

A portion of Roddy's division is breaking up the distilleries in Alabama, so that grain may be procured by the suffering families of soldiers. Whisky is regarded to be a worse enemy than the Yankees.

Gen. Wirt Adams has ordered all the guns and cotton on the Big Black river to be removed immediately.

Richmond Papers on Sherman's Movements.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The Richmond papers assume to be ignorant of Sherman's whereabouts, but sometimes he is lurking in the mud in one of the Southern States. They estimated the forces under his direction, including Gilmore and Schofield, at 60,000.

The excitement at Charlotte has subsided, showing that Sherman has moved in another direction. Nothing is said of the contemplated junction of Schofield in the vicinity of Goldsboro.

Wade Hampton and his cavalry are said to be in possession of Columbia, South Carolina. The burnt section in that city, extends in one direction three-quarters of a mile. No public property was destroyed.

Rebel deserters who arrived at Newbern, say that Kingston and Goldsboro are being fortified by order of Gen. Lee, who says the latter place must be held at all hazards.

NEW YORK, March 4.—It is thought here that the Richmond Whig's statement that the railroad from Augusta to Atlanta is not completed, is proof that Dick Taylor's forces were not able to reach Sherman's rear in season to interfere with his movements. The rebels have evidently had no railway communication west of Augusta, since Sherman passed through.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The Herald's special dispatch says: Authentic information from Richmond has been received, that Sherman's advance has reached Fayetteville, North Carolina. The dispatch also says, Porter's gunboats had reached that point.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The House bill has been passed to facilitate communication with New Mexico, Arizona and Colorado by giving any one establishing an artesian well of living water the section of land on which the well shall be located. It is stated that the same bill authorized the issue of the bonds necessary for the building of one hundred miles of the Pacific Railroad in advance of the completed line from Sacramento.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Both Houses passed the bill to establish a home for disabled soldiers. It incorporates. The incorporators are Lieut. Gen. Grant and ninety-nine others. The capital is to consist of a million of dollars, made up from the military fund and from pay and donations. There is to be no expense to the Government.

Richmond Reports and Surmises.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 3d says: A telegram from Fayetteville on the 1st says, at that time no Yankees had advanced in that direction from Wilmington. We have nothing from Sherman. He is presumed to be in the mud of South Carolina.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 3d has a long article showing that Sherman and Grant can be beaten in detail and the independence of the Confederacy is to be thus secured.

Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, is now actually at work rallying the people and organizing them to resist the invaders. It is said that Grant has stripped every section of the country and that in Western Virginia he has not men enough to protect his Generals while sleeping.

The Richmond papers are confident in the belief that Grant will move the moment the ground is sufficiently hard to permit him to. They say that he has everything ready for an advance.

Our forces are kept watching nightly on the James for Sherman, while the rebels are kept active watching for deserters from their lines.

Affair at Greenville, N. C.—Conspiracy to Capture Sheridan—Capture of Fort White.

NEW YORK, March 6.—A portion of the New York Twelfth Cavalry and one company of the First North Carolina, mounted lately, surprised and captured a company of rebel soldiers near Greenville, North Carolina. They then dashed into town, destroyed the Commissary Stores and captured other prisoners.

The Tribune's Wilmington correspondent announces the arrival of 900 exchanged Union prisoners, sick, starved, emaciated and naked.

The Herald's Winchester correspondent of the 3d says: A few days ago three Winchester families by the names of Conrad, Lee and Burnell, were sent out of our lines on a charge of disloyalty. It is said they conspired together to get up a social ball to which Gen. Sheridan was to be an invited guest, that during its progress a detachment of Mosby's men was to seize the General, take him captive and convey him to Richmond.

PHILADELPHIA, March 6.—The transport Massachusetts has arrived, and reports that our naval forces have captured Fort White, a splendid work mounting 17 guns, just below Georgetown, South Carolina. The sailors and marines landed and took possession. The rebel cavalry charged on them in the streets but were gallantly repulsed, with a loss of several killed, wounded and prisoners. Our loss was one man. Admiral Dahlgreen's flag-ship, the Harvest Moon, on her way down was sunk by a torpedo. All hands were saved with the exception of the wardroom steward.

Wilmington Matters—Sherman's Movements.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The Republican says: Officers of Schofield's army, who arrived here this forenoon from Wilmington, state that when they left that place on March 1st, prisoners and refugees who came into our lines that day, reported that Sherman by a flank movement had compelled the rebels to evacuate Florence and was moving in the direction of Fayetteville, N. C., which is on the direct route to either Goldsboro or Raleigh.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Information from Wilmington says: Everything is progressing well in that Department. Gen. Couch has been assigned to the command of the Twenty-third Army Corps and of the city of Wilmington. On the 2d he issued an order allowing all citizens to resume their occupations with proper restrictions relating to contraband trade. One thousand deserters and prisoners were about to be sent North. On Wednesday last, March 1st, about fifteen thousand dollars worth of medical supplies were discovered secreted in Wilmington, several thousand dollars worth being quinine. The paymaster had nearly finished paying the troops in the Department. The weather had been very bad.

Mexican News.

CAIRO, March 4.—The New Orleans Times of Feb. 25th says: The reported expulsion of the American Consul from Matamoras, appears to be confirmed by an arrival at the South-west Pass.

The schooner Jane Dixon, reported lost off the mouth of the Rio Grande, has arrived safely inside the bar.

The latest news from Matamoras is that the American flag was hauled down by some unknown party.

The Times is informed that the assigned reason for Maximilian delivering his passports to our Consul at Matamoras, was the non-recognition of the French and Austrian authorities in Mexico by our Government.

The Times Bagdad correspondent says: It is reported that Gen. S. Carvajal is marching on Matamoras from Majora, with four thousand troops.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

Notice.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States stamp over the cork unmutilated, and our signature on steel plate side label. Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION; IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
